HOUSE PASSES FORDNEY TARIFF

Washnigton .- The Tariff bill, estimated by Chairman Fordney to raise around $500,000,000 in revenue annually, was passed by the House by a vote of 289 to 127. Seven Republicans voted against the measure, while the same number of Democrats supported it. Oil, hides, cotton and asphalt stood up against a determined fight to tax them and remained on the free list. The Longworth dye embargo, first of the five contested schedules to go before the House proper for a separate vote, and backed by most of the Republican members of the Ways and Means Committee, was thrown Forming and holding a flying wedge, and aided by Republicans not satisfied with all the providence saying that a basis for a formal sions of the bill, the Democratic Irish peace parley has not yet been
